Situation of Cavalry Force Critical-2,000,000 Slavs March Rearward.

SITUATION OF SEVENTH ARMY MORE HOPEFUL

Deserters, Spies and Agitators Are Shot to Restore Morale of Troops. Berlin Claims More Gains.

PETROGRAD, July 31.-North of Husiatyn, on the Russo-Gall-cian frontier, the Russians yesterday restored their position on the east bank of the River Zhrocz, says the official statement issued today by the Russian war department. Austro-German efforts to force a passage across liany and Podliple were frus-

By the Associated Press LONDON, July 31.-A dispatch to the Post from Petrograd, referring to the Russian retreat in Galicia, says it is onservatively estimated that more nan two million Russian troops are teadily marching rearward. These onstitute the eleventh and seventh armies with their reserves. The eighth my, which is largely cavalry and not cluded in the foregoing figures, also retreating, and its position, says e correspondent, is extremely critical. The Germans are straining every effort to capture it while following up the eleventh and seventh armies, and it looks as if the eighth army might be caught in a bag.

Deserters and Spies Shot.

spread panic are suppressed by prompt spread panic are suppressed by prompt executions. Deserters, sples and agitators who enjoyed complete immunity under the committee system lie dead on the highways. A paper pinned on the corpses reads: "Here lies a traitor to his country." Red badges and other symbols which accompanied the demoralization have almost disappeared.

Rumanians Are Praised.

The Times correspondent at Rumanian headquarters, telegraphing Saturday, speaks enthusiastically of the morale of the Rumanian soldiers and successful advance, which resultd in the capture of 240 machine guns, 0 guns and 3,000 prisoners. The correspondent says, however, that owing to the situation in Galicia the Casin valley and the Putna, the enemy tried to attack us at different points, but the attacks were every-where repulsed." says the official Rumanian war statement, under date of July 28. "Fighting is in progress for the possession of the Magura Casilunin Height," the statement adds.

Russian Official Report.

chyk, in the region of Cvianistche, Kissilie and Stetzoff, after a series of obstinate attacks, the enemy succeeded in thrusting back our troops slightly. "In the Carpathians, east of the towns of Stounotik and Capul, our troops under enemy pressure retired to the region of Sipot, Kanarai and Moldava. On the remainder of the front there was rifle firing.

Situation in Rumania.

burg Island. They were fired at by the fleet and shore batteries. The machines disappeared after dropping about twenty beream without result.

"A squadron of enemy airplanes, in the same district, attacked one of our destroyers, dropping eight bombs without result.

"Our fire brought down a German airplane in flames in the pelephorhood."

plane in flames in the neighborhood of Stekhnikovcs, west of Zbaraj."

An official communication strongly repudiates recent claims made in German wireless dispatches that the rout of the Russians on the southwest Russian front was due to a German thrust which the British, French and Russian authorities were poweriess to prevent.

"Who does not krow" says the communication. "that the Russian rirement is to be explained by the instability of the Russian army, due to a combination of recent events, and not, as the Germans allege, to operations according to the plan made by the German troops?

"In the permistent repetition of the same allegation is clearly revealed the German yearning to inculcate mistrust among the entent countries and arouse the peoples against their respective governments. Is in necessary to repeat hundreds of times that the true significance of this German provocative activity was long since found out, and that all efforts to violate the integrity of Russia's entente with her allies are absolutely honeless." that the true significance of this German provocative activity was long since found administrator is preaching the menu included no butter, no fats, no destegrity of Russia's entente with her allies are absolutely hopeless."

Russ Forced From Line

BERLIN, July 21, via London.—Russian forces which made a stand in western Bukowina, says the official statement issued today by the German general staff, were forced yesterday to evacuate their Cherewosh line and to retire to the east-Shistyn.

In the wooded Carpathians area the Teutons forced the Russians to abandon their positions in the Meste-Canaste sector.

Zbrocz River Crossed.

Last Night's Report. The official communication of last night says:

"Eastern theater, army group of Gen. von Boehm-Ersolli: The Russian forces are holding the heights east of the River Zbrocz, which has been crossed at several points in spite of fierce resistance and been reached by our divisions also to the south of Skala. Also on the northern bank of the Dniester we have gained ground beyond Korolowka.

"Front of Archduke Joseph: Along the Cheremosh the enemy is defending himself on the eastern bank of the river. Our attack continues between Zalucze and Wisnitz. In the Suchawa Zalucze and Wisnitz. In the Suchawa valley our troops are penetrating toward Seletyn.

"Also on the east of the upper Moldova valley we fought our way forward. Field Marshal von Mackensen's successful advances to the north of Fokshani and at the mouth of the Bianicul brought us several hundred prisoners.

Austrian Official Report.

The Austrian war office communica-

In the region south of Brody (on the Russo-Galician frontier, northeast of Lemberg) Austro-Hungarian and German troops have successfully penetrated Russian trenches."

Russ Lose 270 Cannon.

COPENHAGEN, July 31.-The Berlin Tageblatt's correspondent at Austrian army headquarters gives the number of cannon captured by the Germans in the Russian retreat as seventy, those taken by the Austrians numbering nearly 200. Gen. Korniloff, according to correspondent, apparently is attempting to organize a new resistanc along the rocky Galician frontier.

RAILWAY COMPANY ASKS FOR LICENSED JITNEY LIST

Letter to Utilities Board Protests Against Competitive Service Paralleling Its Lines.

Request that it be furnished with a list of all licensed jitney operators, together with the routes traversed and rates and schedules maintained, was made of the public utilities commission today by the Washington Railway and Fleetric Company.

evidenced by a reference in the letter to the emergency permits issued to jit-ney operators while the strike was in Progress.

Referring to a letter received from the commission under date of July 26, to Texas Governor Wants Action on the effect that consideration is being the effect that consideration is being given to a rearrangement of routes so as to reduce interference with traffic as much as possible, the company says. "We assume that you mean by rearrangement of routes that no routes paralleling our railway lines will be permitted hereafter."

"Rumanian front: On Saturday the enemy delivered attacks north of the Jakobouy-Himpolung road, which were repulsed during the day, but toward evening the enemy pressed our troops back on the heights west of Foundaul and Moldavia. Enemy attacks on Dornei and Saroui were repulsed, as well as attacks on both sides of the Pokshani-Ajoud railway.

Germans in Air Raids.

"Baltic sea: One Friday an enemy Zeppelin while flying over the Aland Islands dropped twenty large bombs on the town of Tornby, near Mariehamm. The Zeppelin was fired at by the guns of the fleet and the shore batteries.

"In the Guif of Riga squadrons of the strangement of routes that no routes paralleling our railway lines will be paralleling our railway long will be paralleling our railway long will be paralleling our railway long will be paralleling our railway lone will be paralleling our railway consent. "In the Guif of Riga squadrons of assessed against jitneys, these con-enemy hydro-airplanes raided the neighborhood of the Zerel and Arons-burg Island. They were fired at by the fleet and shore batteries. The machines ies commission as being "frout-throat and unregulated

SIMPLE MENU MARKS H. C. HOOVER'S DINNER

Herbert C. Hoover, apostle of food conservation, entertained at dinner last the simplicity and economy that Mr. Hoover preaches. This menu follows:

Crab, Metropolitan Club.

Prices in Chicago "Smashed" by Sixteen guests attended the dinner, including Baron Moncheur, head of the Belgian mission, and members of the mission, and Mr. Cartier de Marchienne, Belgian minister, and members of his

IN SUPPORT OF I. W. W.

CHICAGO, July 31 .- Miners, harvest hands and lumbermen of the middle west threaten to go on a sympathetic strike unless the deported Industrial tains one of the German regiments was pressed back to the south of POLICEMAN KILLS NEGRO IN DEFENSE OF HIS LIFE

Helmuth Shoots George Ransom When Attacked Following Arrest of Alleged Stone Thrower.

George Ransom, colored, 469 Washington street, last night about 11 o'clock was shot in the head by Policeman Helmuth of the first precinct and killed. The negro was armed with a pistol and had the weapon pointed at the policeman when the latter shot him. Cartridges in his weapon that was dropped on the sidewalk at 6th and H streets, where he fell, showed that an effort had been made to discharge it. The pistol was a center fire weapon and its chamwas a center fire weapon and its cham-bers contained rim-fire cartridges, which probably saved the policeman's which probably saved the policeman's life.

The shooting was the culmination of an attack by several colored men on Louis Marucci, 715 5th street, who was passing through Washington street in his automobile. He stated the colored men threw stones at him and followed him through to 6th street. At the home of Policeman Helmuth, 717 6th street, the policeman was preparing to report for duty at midnight.

Helmuth's first word of trouble on the street came from his mother, Mrs. Pauline Helmuth, and Mrs. Mary Hendrickson, who were seated in front of

The Austrian war office communication of yesterday says:

"North of the Suchitza valley and on both sides of the Casin valley several enemy attacks failed.

"Overcoming stubborn resistance of the Russians we are gaining further ground in Bukowina. Near the valley of the Putna we captured the tunnel points of approach. Higher up from the Fundal-Moldava we crossed the Moldavia valley.

"Northwest of Kuty the allied (Teutonic) troops are fighting on the right bank of the Cheremosh. Between the Pruth and the Dnlester the enemy has again been driven back. We are crossing the Russian frontier of Bukowina. Honved regiments have occupied Zale-Szzyky.

"Between Skala and Husiatyn the Galician bank of the River Zbrozz has been cleared of the enemy. At places we have crossed onto Russian territory. In the region south of Brody (on the clear of an interest of the south of an interest of the case of a said caused him to drop his weapon. Helmuth reported the shooting at the first precinct station. He was detained there to await the result of an interest came from his mother, Mrs. Pauline Helmuth, and Mrs. Mary Hendrickson, who were seated in front of the house. Stones thrown by some of the house. Stones thrown by there to await the result of an inquest.

Detectives Pratt and Kelly were among those who investigated the shooting. They learned from Katie Gross, sister of the man who was placed under arrest, that Ransom, just after Marucci had been attacked, entered the house, got his revolver and returned to the street. Edward F. Bergen, 716 6th street, told the police he saw a pistol in Ransom's hand pointed at the policeman when the latter fired. at the policeman when the latter fired Frederick Gross was shown the pis Frederick Gross was shown the pistol at the police station and identified it as belonging to Ransom. Coroner Nevitt ordered an inquest for this afternoon at the morgue. Policeman Helmuth says he fired the shot in defense of his own life.

MORE THAN 4,000 WOULD ENTER FORT MYER CAMP

Number of Applicants Four Times as Great as the Allot-

More than four times as many have sought admission to the next camp for reserve officers at Fort Myer as can be accommodated. The quota has been set

CONVENES THE LEGISLATURE.

University Appropriation. AUSTIN, Tex., July 31.—Gov. James E. Ferguson last night issued a call for a special session of the Texas legislature to convene Wednesday, August 1, to make additional appropriations for the maintenance of the University of Texas. His section removed the question as to the vice of the control of the cont action removed the question as to the va-lidity of the call by Speaker F. O. Fuller for a special session of the House, beginning August 1, to consider impeaching the governor. A few representatives had declined to accept Speaker Fuller's call, but it is now certain that enough members will be present to transact any desired business.

In his call tonight Gov. Ferguson stated that he desired the legislature to pass upon the university question, so that the people of Texas may judge for themselves as to his attitude in the premises.

NEW MOTOR VEHICLE LAWS. New York Hopes to Reduce Number of Accidents.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Three motor vehicle laws from which it is expected fewer accidents will result will become effective tomorrow. As the pected fewer accidents will result will become effective tomorrow. As the laws become effective new licenses are required, which it was said will mean about 1,500 applications for licenses would be made today. Applicants have been coming to the license bureau at the rate of about 1,000 a day for the last week.

last week.

These laws are the Cromwell-Kelly act, requiring the licensing of all operators of motor vehicles in New York city; the Hewitt anti-headlight measure, and the trailer law, imposing fees on motor truck trailers ranging from $5 to $30, the last two applying to the whole state.

VEGETABLES PLENTIFUL.

Flood of Supplies.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Prices of many egetables are "going to smash" in the hicago market, wholesalers declared South Water street is flooded and "South Water street is flooded and smothered with luscious ripe tomatoes," said Edward G. Davies, representing several shipping associations.

Boxes of twenty-two pounds sold today for 35 or 40 cents. The reason for the flood of tomatoes is the abnormally hot spell. They are ripening fast. Yesterday merchants were retailing baskets of tomatões for 25 cents, which today brought only 7½ cents.

Cucumbers, which recently brought 15 cents each and are now so plentiful ents each and are now so plentiful hat some dealers call them "penny

STATE TO CLAIM PROPERTY. Maryland Moves to Get Donovan

$50,000 Liberia Fund.

BALTIMORE, July 31.—Attorney Gen-eral Ritchie of Maryland yesterday be-The Russian frontier river of Zbrocz has been crossed by the Austro-German troops at many points along a thirty-mile front, in spite of bitter Russian resistance, the German report says.

Turkish troops captured the Russian positions near Niwra on the River Zbrocz.

In the area of the Bereczker moun strike uniess the deported Industrial workers of the World are returned to their homes in the Warren district of their homes in the Warren district of Arizona.

A telegram voicing the intention of a walkout of more than a quarter of a million men was sent from Chicago to President Wilson late yesterday by W. D. Haywood, secretary of the Industrial Workers of the World.

rench official photograph showing a gun mounted on an armored railroad train sending forth its message

STUDENT OFFICERS MUST OBSERVE DRAFT RULES

Men in Training Camps in First Call Forced to Take Physical Examinations.

Men in the Fort Myer training cam; for reserve officers and in all other similar camps must observe the draft Electric Company.

Since the railway strike more than 400 jitney licenses have been issued and the commission is preparing to make a general investigation of the month, the period having opened June 15 and closed July 15. It was stated that license in contemplation to require the importance of the railway company asks if any steps are in contemplation to require the operatives of jitneys to give bond as a protection to parons in cases of action to portance will be taken to meet the recommendations made by Gen. Pershing for a recognized to the draft and a former member of the staffs of the second training camps for reserve of the second training camps, so it is probable that the sate that the was tated that it was not contemplated to force these men to leave the officers of the second training camps, so it is probable that the sate that the stated that it was not contemplated to force these men to leave the officers of the commission of the expeditionary force.

At present there are three officers to a company. It is possible that this many of the jitneys are being operated, some pictures showing a discreptionary force.

Expects Ban on Using Road's Routes

Expects Ban on Using Road's Routes

Expects Ban on Using Road's Routes

That the company expects the commission to prohibit jitneys from training routes paralleling its lines is evidenced by a reference in the letter of the emergency permits issued to jitney of the properators while the strike was in the letter of the expectation of the expectat and to Have Command. Assistant Secretary Ingraham of the War Department today issued commiswar Department today issued commis-sions to the following named officers of the District of Columbia National Guard in accordance with the recom-mendations of Brig. Gen. Harvey, com-mending:

manding:
Capt. Leroy W. Herron, to be major Capt. Leroy W. Herron, to be major of cavalry; First Lieuts. John W. Thompson and Leopold L. Krentzlin, to be captains of cavalry; Second Lieuts. Murray Cobb and Dudley Brown and Sergits. Ferdinand M. Strong and Wilford E. Boughton, to be first lieutenants of cavalry; Private Donald E. Long and Sergits. Harry L. Kays, William J. Harper and John D. Robnett, to be second lieutenants of cavalry.

These promotions are all subject to the examination prescribed by law. It is expected that the commissions will be mailed by the adjutant general of the Army this afternoon or tomorrow. When Maj. Herron receives his new commission, it is understood, he will assume command of the camp of District troops at Paterson Park.

PRESIDENT WILSON IGNORES HEAT WAVE ON THE GOLF LINKS

President Wilson is attracting attention on the golf links around Washington these days by playing his favorite game while wearing a stiff collar.

The President did not go out this morning, but was on the links yesterday, wearing a starched and laundered collar, although most other players wear soft collars or rolling collars attached to soft shrits open at the neck.

tached to soit same neck.

"I don't believe there is another man in Washington who could do that," remarked a golfer yesterday who met the President on the links.

NO. 1 IN NATIONAL ARMY CONGRATULATED.

BIG DAY FOR STUDENT OFFICERS TOMORROW

for reserve officers and in all other similar camps must observe the draft regulations just the same as other citizens who have been drafted. This does not mean, however, that men in these training camps will be compelled to leave them and go into the camps of the draft army.

All men in the training camps who have been drawn for the National Army must take their physical examinations either their house where drafted or under section 29 of the regulations for local boards they can have their physical examinations transferred to the local board where they are in camp.

As the National Army will probably not be called into its camps before the first camps for reserve officers have finished their course, there is little like-lihood that men now at the Fort Myer cases specially decled upon. If they qualify for a commission they will to the cantonments for the draft army.

Men who have been selected to attend the second training camps for reserve officers have officers are not of washington practically all of his life that the cantonments for the draft army.

Men who have been selected to attend the second training camps for reserve officers at Fort Myer. The last meeting of the board of camp of the same than 10 the min to the min the training camps for the draft and min the links.

DR. DWIGHT G. SMITH

SUCCUMBS AT HOSPITA

SUCCUMBS AT HOSPITA

The first, second, fourth and fifth companies of infantry from the training camp for reserve officers at Fort Myer. The first, second, fourth and fifth companies of infantry from the training camp for reserve officers at Fort Myer. The links of the draft and min the many links and the problem of the same before the first camps for reserve officers at Fort Myer.

The first, second, fourth and fifth companies of infantry from the training camp for reserve officers at Fort Myer.

The first, second, fourth and fifth companies of infantry from the training camp for reserve officers and will camp in their shelter training camp for reserve officers and will camp in their shelter tre

"Dash lamps or dimmers containing reflectors must not be used with bulbs over four-candlepower.

"The rear lamp must be so mounted that the light will shine on the rear license tag, making all the numerals discernible not less than twenty-five feet in the direction from which the vehicle is proceeding.

Tests and Inspections.

Tests and Inspections.

"Two competent officers will test and inspect any and all lights on motor vehicles in the narrow street directly opposite the central police station on Saratoga street, just east of Charles, in Baltimore, each week night between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock.

"If the lamps inspected meet the requirements of the law, the officers will place a seal on the right headlamp, which will hold the user of that vehicle immune from arrest so long as his equipment has not been changed or altered.

"There will be no charge. "There will be no charge for this meant and having a vague idea of it as a disease, the negro said: "'Deed, boss, Ah's done told the doctor all the diseases Ah had, but Ah don't know if Ah have exemption." Dr. Martin told him that exemption was a disease that was very prevalent among the men nowadays.

NEW YORK SWELTERS

MANY OF D. C. MEN WAR OVER DRY LAW FIT FOR ARMY FILE EXEMPTION PLEAS

(Continued from First Page.)

Sixty men were called up for examination today. Seventeen took the physical tests up until noon today, twelve of them passing, while four were rejected. One case is pending, which will be settled tomorrow.

All Ask Exemption.

All Ask Exemption.

Practically all of the 158 men who have been summoned to appear before exemption board No. 4 at No. 4 police precinct station, have filed claims for exemption from the draft, according to Melvin C. Hazen, chairman of the board in that precinct. No more cards have been sent out as yet, as no definite line could be obtained today on the examinations, but in all probability the board will know by tomorrow, Mr. Hazen said.

Physical examinations began at 10 o'clock this morning. The board has notified the men in that district to appear in lots of ten at each hour.

Fifty-three men were summoned to appear before the board today. Eighteen took the physical examination up

Fifty-three men were summoned to appear before the board today. Eighteen took the physical examination up until noon today, about 80 per cent of them qualifying by meeting the physical requirements.

About seventy men are being examined daily by the exemption board at Business High School. Sixty-four took the physical examination yesterday, out of which twenty were turned down. They will be re-examined Thursday. It will take approximately three days to examine the first men to be called up. Thirty-one took the physical tests up to noon today.

Out of twenty-seven registrants examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by board No. 6, in the District building, four were rejected for physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by board No. 6, in the District building, four were rejected for physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by board No. 6, in the District building, four were rejected for physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by constant of the physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by constant of the physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by constant of the physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by constant of the physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by constant of the physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined the first men to be called up. Thirdy-one took the physical tests up to noon today.

Out of twenty-seven registrants examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by board No. 6, in the District building. The physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by board No. 6, in the District building. The physical disability and twenty-three applied for examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by board No. 6, in the District building. The ph

Out of twenty-seven registrants examined up until 12:30 o'clock today by board No. 6, in the District building, four were rejected for physical disability and twenty-three applied for exemption. Of the total number twenty-three are married and have children and three have widowed mothers.

Examinations Progress Rapidly.

Board to Pass Finally on Recommendations for Commissions.

Actual Field Work.

Tomorrow is the fateful day for the more than 2,000 men in the training camp for reserve officers at Fort Myer, officers, who pass upon the men for commissions, will be held and their recommendations will be written into the minutes of that meeting and go forward immediately to the War Department. The first, second, fourth and fifth commination today and by noon about the last meeting and go forward immediately to the War Department.

Examinations Progress Rapidly.

Work of examining the 110 young men called for draft in the National Army from the seventh division, at Western High School, is progressing rapidly. The examining board, consisting of Sidney Roche, Frank T. Leech and Dr. John W. Chappell, examined thirty-seven young men yesterday. Of those who were examined yesterday seventeen filled claims for discharge, principally on the ground of dependency, thirteen were physically disquallified and seven qualified with no claims, however, have until tomorrow evening at 5:30 o'clock to file such claims.

Thirty-five men were called for ex-amination today and by noon about twelve of them had been before the board. How many have passed the physical examination and did not file exemption claims could not be learned. It was stated, however, that in a num-ber of cases young men asked for dis-charge on the ground that they have dependents.

charge on the ground that they have dependents.

Two colored men failed to answer the call to appear before the board yesterday. One of them, however, made his appearance this morning. He explained that he thought the notice he received read for him to appear today. His explanation was satisfactory to the board and he was examined. The other man had failed to make his appearance by noon today, and it was stated unless noon today, and it was stated unless he appears by tomorrow evening, and then gives a good excuse for his failure to appear, his name will be turned in as having been drafted and he will be

RAISE IN NEW YORK QUOTA OF MEN FOR THE NEW ARMY

Increase Due to Carelessness in Reporting Recruits, Is the Ex-

Increase Due to Carelessness, in Reporting Statement of the several content of the several

"Dash lamps or dimmers containing rejected men would run as high as 25 or

SENATE DEBATES PLAN FOR DRAFTING ALIENS

of United States Liable to Any Service.

Proposed to Make Subjects of Allies

Four Degrees Hotter at 9:30 O'Clock
Than Yesterday.

NEW YORK July 21

Methods of reaching aliens under the provisions of the army draft law were widely discussed in the Senate today.
Senator McCumber brought up his reso-

TO END TOMORROW Senate Debating Constitutional Amendment for Nation-

Wide Prohibition. HOUR IS FIXED FOR VOTE

through a constitutional amendment 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the Sen-ate, under agreement, will vote on the Sheppard resolution for the submission of a constitutional amendment to the states.

The prohibition leaders insist that the resolution will be approved. The "wets" are not saying much, but insist that the vote will be very close. It requires a two-thirds majority to put through a resolution proposing a constitutional amendment.

Poll of the Senate.

Plea to Republicans.

Senator Jones of Washington told the Senator Jones of Washington told the Senate that the republican party, of which he is a member, would have to declare for prohibition if it is to keep abreast of the times.

"I believe in the intelligence and capacity of the membership of the republican party," said Senator Jones, "I want it to succeed because I believe its success is the greatest good of the nation. It will have to declare for prohibition. Why? Because it will be necessary to party success. Northern states having prohibition laws cast 121 electoral votes. Republican success without them is extremely doubtful. The party will not dare declare against prohibition in the face of these votes.

"This question will become a party."

against prohibition in the face of these votes.

"This question will become a party question, but not a party issue. Why? Because when the republican party declares for prohibition the democratic party will do likewise."

Sees No Good in Liquor.

Senator Jones insisted that no good ever came out of liquor, but that only grief and wretchedness were its crop. Labor, he said, which has been urged to insist that prohibition be defeated, can get no good from the liquor traffic. The argument of the liquor producers that if prohibition is forced upon the country it will create dissension and strife among millions of workers, he said, is untrue.

country strife among minsaid, is untrue.
"Who threaten us with rebellion.
"Who threaten us with rebellion.
"Interests. A statement interests. A statement a short time. who threaten us with rebellion?" asked Senator Jones. "Not the laborer, but the liquor interests. A statement given out by the brewers a short time ago said that prohibition would produce anger, resentment and disaffection among millions of American workmen." In whose interest was the statemen." men.' In whose interest was this ut-tered? Not labor, but in the interests of Quotes Abraham Lincoln. "A vote for the amendment now pending will help to realize the dream of Abraham Lincoln." Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas told the Senate yesterday in the opening speech on his resolution proposing a constitutional amendment for nation-wide pro-

ROUND UP AT MOBILE.

MOBILE. Ala. July 31.—Believing that there are a number of military age who failed to register, the United States district attorney's office has begun a round-up of the district.

Dan Lewis, believed by authorities to be about twenty-five years of age, a resident of Whistler. Ala. was taken in custody by United States marshals late yesterday.

have a greater population than the over thin, y-six, and to force prohibition on them by a constitutional amendment would work a great injustice to the entire population of the country. Senator Ashurst, who defended the resolution, advoated setting a time limit within which a constitutional amendment must be ratified. He read a list of amendments, which have been proposed to the Constitution which were before the states for very long periods, one for eighty-four years and another for 128 years.

Senator Shafroth declared addition of a prohibition amendment to the Constitution was imperative because states have found it impossible to enforce their liquor laws.

SOCIOLOGISTS' MEETING TODAY AT ASHEVILLE

their liquor laws.

Southern Congress to Hear Assistant Surgeon General John W. Trask Tonight.

A dispatch to the Times from the headquarters of the Russian 7th Army says the situation is more hopeful. Panics among the retreaters are suppressed ruthlessly. Three divisions of cavalry have taken positions across the whole front of retreat.

Deserters are shot and attempts to stread range are suppressed by prompt.

operations on a great scale are unlikely "In the mountainous region, between

PETROGRAD, July 31.—The official communication from general head-quarters yesterday reads:
"In the region of Zbaraj there were artillery actions and the enemy bombarded the town. South of Goussiatini the enemy infantry attempted to cross the Zbrocz river, but was repulsed.
"On the Dniester the enemy attacked "On the Dniester the enemy attacked our bridgehead near Zaleshchyk (Zale-Szczyky), but after obstinate fighting was repulsed. Southwest of Zalesh-chyk, in the region of Cvianistche.

"In the Gulf of Riga squadrons of Repudiates German Claims. An official communication strongly re-

The German announcement says that in the direction of Czernowitz, the capital of Bukowina, the Austro-German forces have captured Werenceanka and